FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Menomonie Police Department responds to Robbery

Menomonie— On September 10, 2017, Menomonie police officers responded to a robbery at the Holiday gas station located at 1805 N Broadway. The lone male suspect was wearing gloves and approached the cashier, demanding the money in the cash register. The suspect did not display or indicate he had a weapon and the money was handed over to him without any confrontation. The suspect fled on foot and a search of the area did not locate him.

The Menomonie Police Department is looking to identify this subject as quickly as possible. The male was described to be around 20-30 years old, 5'9"-6' tall, with dark facial hair, and seemed to be speaking with an Italian accent. Surveillance cameras were able to capture his photograph, which is included with this release.

Please contact the Menomonie Police Department at 715-232-1283 with any information and reference case # 17-10332 . If you wish to report and remain anonymous, you may do so through the Dunn County CrimeStoppers by calling 1-855-TIP-DUNN, texting 'TIPDUNN' plus your message to 'CRIMES' (274637), or submitting tip online at www.dunncocrimestoppers.com
